Application for extension of a temporary residence permit on the grounds of asylum

Use

Use this form when applying for an extension of a temporary residence permit issued on the grounds of asylum.

A 'residence permit issued on the grounds of asylum' should be understood to mean: a residence permit issued to a foreign national who is covered by the Refugee Convention or the conditions specified in the Aliens Act regarding 'protected status', cf. sec 7 and 8 of the Aliens Act. Your original residence permit will state under which regulation you were granted asylum, thereby giving you the right to reside in Denmark as a refugee.

The word 'applicant' should be understood to mean: the person who is applying to extend his or her residence permit.

Where can you see on what grounds you have been granted a residence permit?

The grounds for your residence permit are explained in the letter from the Danish Immigration Service which you received when you were first granted a residence permit, or when you were granted your latest extension. If you hold a Residence Card (plastic card), the grounds for your residence permit are indicated by the letter under the heading 'Type opholdstilladelse' (Type of residence permit). The letter 'F' usually means that you have been granted a residence permit on the grounds of asylum. In this case, you can use this form. If you are in doubt about the grounds for your residence permit, you are always welcome to contact the Danish Immigration Service.

If you have children who need to extend their residence permits

Separate forms are required for children who need to extend a temporary residence permit issued on the grounds of family reunification or asylum. A separate form for each child must be completed. The relevant forms are available at www.newtodenmark.dk.

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

National passport	Other, please state

3. Sworn declaration regarding travels to the country of origin

A sworn declaration must be made by all who hold a residence permit on the grounds of asylum (cf. sec 7 and 8 of the Aliens Act) when applying for extension of their residence permit.

Your declaration will be used in the Immigration Service's assessment of whether continued asylum – and thereby the right to reside in Denmark as a refugee – is required. Visiting your country of origin while residing in Denmark as a refugee might indicate that you no longer require protection in Denmark.

By 'country of origin' we mean the country or countries in which the Danish authorities, when issuing your residence permit, assessed that you were at risk from the kind of persecution mentioned in sec 7 and 8 of the Aliens Act. For instance, the 'country of origin' for stateless Palestinians from Lebanon is Lebanon.

(tick only one)

I declare that I have travelled to my country of origin at the following times while having a temporary Danish residence permit (further travels can be declared on the reverse of this declaration):

Such information includes:

- Previous criminal proceedings against me
- My familial relations

I also consent to giving authorities contacted by the Danish Immigration Service while processing this application permission to gather information about my private affairs for use in responding to the Immigration Service's enquiry.

This process can be initiated by Danish immigration authorities, Danish intelligence agencies or the Danish public prosecutor.

The prosecuting authority will be able to use the information to evaluate whether there are grounds for prosecuting you for crimes committed in Denmark or abroad, to identify victims of or witnesses to a specific crime, or to aid foreign law enforcement agencies.

D. Notification that some information will be passed on to local Danish authorities

Danish immigration authorities are permitted to give certain information to the municipality (kommune) in which you live.

Such information includes the grounds for issuing you a residence permit.

The municipality will be informed if

- your residence permit is revoked or not extended,

- your residence permit is made permanent.

E. Notification that Danish authorities have registered information about you and your affairs

The information you supply or have supplied in connection with your application for an extension of a temporary residence permit will be registered in the Danish Immigration Service's registers. The same holds true for any information you give in conjunction with an application to extend your residence permit.

If you receive a residence permit, it will be registered in the Central Person Register. The Central Person Register is a computerised register maintained by the Ministry of Economic Affairs and the Interior.

The information in the Danish Immigration Service's registers and the Central Person Register will be used to answer questions relating to your residence in Denmark. Public administration authorities (record keeping), the police (record keeping and verification) and the Ministry of Justice (reviewing complaints) will have access to the information about you contained in the Danish Immigration Service's registers and the Central Person Register.

Other authorities or organisations will receive information about you from the Danish Immigration Service's registers and the Central Person Register if they require the information to address questions relating to your residence in Denmark.

You are obligated to provide the information necessary for deciding whether you are eligible for a Danish residence permit. Failure to provide the information can result in a fine or up to four months of imprisonment, as well as placing your residence permit in jeopardy. You are entitled to access information about yourself in the Danish Immigration Service's registers and the Central Person Register. Enquiries about this can be addressed to the Danish Immigration Service, Ryesgade 53, DK-2100 Copenhagen Ø.

F. Information regarding possible verification by the authorities of the information you have supplied

The Immigration Service and other Danish authorities may seek to verify the accuracy of the information you have given in this application. This may happen while the application is being processed or later, if you are granted an extension of your permit. If you are granted an extension of your permit and the Immigration Service finds that you no longer meet the requirements of your residence permit, your permit may be revoked. Verification may be conducted at random and is not necessarily an indication that the Immigration Service suspects you of providing false information, or of not meeting the requirements of your residence permit.

Verification may involve the following:

- Checking public registers, such as the Central Person Register
- Comparison of information contained in the Aliens Register or other Immigration Service registries with records held by the Central Office of Civil Registration (CPR Office), the Buildings and Housing Registry (BBR) or the income registry
- Contacting other authorities, such as municipalities
- Contacting third parties, such as employers or places of study
- Turning up in person at your residence, place of study or workplace

You may be asked to supply additional information as part of the verification process.
