Application for Danish residence permit based on previous Danish citizenship, Danish heritage or affiliation with the Danish minority in South Schleswig

Uses

Use this form when applying for a Danish residence permit based on

- previous Danish citizenship,
- Danish heritage, or
- if you belong to the Danish minority in South Schleswig.

More about the rules covering residence permits granted based on the above-mentioned criteria can be found on page 2 of this form, where you will also find examples of approved documentation.

Instructions

To apply for a Danish residence permit:

1. Fill out and sign this form, following the instructions given.
2. Include the required documents
3. Submit the application to a Danish diplomatic mission (embassy or consulate general) in your country of residence. If you are currently in Denmark, submit the application at the local police station or the Service Centre at the Immigration Service

Which documents are required?

Please include the following documents when submitting this form:

- A copy of your passport (all pages including cover) or a copy of your ID card (EU citizens only)

- 3 passport photos
- Proof of previous Danish citizenship, Danish heritage or that you belong to the Danish minority in South Schleswig (see examples on page 2)

What documents are required when submitting an application?

When submitting your application, please present your passport or ID card (EU citizens only), so the authorities can verify your identity.

If your spouse or minor child is also seeking a Danish residence permit

In order for your spouse / registered partner / cohabiting partner or minor child to qualify for a Danish residence permit, you must meet all the normal requirements for family reunification in Denmark. Apply using the appropriate forms.

For more information

More information about the rules governing family reunification is available at www.newtodenmark.dk, where you can also find information about processing times, etc. If you have questions when filling out the forms, you can also contact the Immigration Service in writing, by telephone or in person. (See contact information below.)

About previous Danish citizenship, Danish heritage and affiliation with the Danish minority in South Schleswig

Previous Danish citizenship

Foreign nationals who have previously held Danish citizenship are eligible for a residence permit under the terms of section 9 d of the Aliens Act. However, you are not eligible if you have lost your citizenship in accordance with section 8 a or section 8 b of the Danish Citizenship Act.

Documentation of previous Danish citizenship includes your own baptismal certificate or one of your parents' baptismal certificates.

Danish heritage

Other foreign nationals of Danish heritage are normally eligible for residence and work permits under the terms of section 9 c (1) of the Aliens Act, if the applicant can prove that both parents (father and mother) or both parents' parents (all four grandparents) are or were born Danish citizens. It is not required that the grandparents still retain their Danish citizenship.

It is not permitted to apply for a residence permit based on Danish heritage more than once.

Documentation of Danish heritage includes your parents' or your grandparents' baptismal certificates.

Affiliation with the Danish minority in South Schleswig

German citizens belonging to the Danish minority in South Schleswig are normally eligible for a Danish residence permit under the terms of section 9 c (1) of the Aliens Act.

Documentation of your affiliation with the Danish minority includes a diploma from a school belonging to the Association of Danish Schools of South Schleswig (Den Danske Skoleforening for Sydslesvig), a membership card or letter from the Southslesvigian Organization Sydslesvigsk Forening or a membership card from the SSW (Sydslesvigsk Vælgerforening).

7. Solemn declarations

A. Sworn declaration of correctness

I solemnly swear that the information in this application is correct and complete.

If the information is found to be false or incomplete, I am subject to the following penalties:

- Fine or imprisonment of up to two years
- I can be required by law to repay the expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false or incomplete information
- My residence permit can be revoked

B. Declaration of consent to allow authorities to gather necessary information

I consent to letting the Danish immigration authorities obtain and pass on information about my private affairs for the purpose of enabling them to process my application. Information can be obtained from or passed on to other Danish and foreign public authorities, including the police authorities.

Such information includes:

- Previous criminal proceedings against me
- My familial relations
- Verification that the documents submitted with my application are genuine

I also consent to giving authorities contacted by the Immigration Service while processing my application permission to gather information about my private affairs for use in responding to the Immigration Service's enquiry.

C. Notification that information can be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and prosecuting authorities

The information and documents that you submit with your application can be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and the Danish public prosecuting authority (Aliens Act section 45 a and section 45 c). This process can be initiated by Danish immigration authorities, Danish intelligence agencies or the Danish public prosecutor.

The prosecuting authority will be able to use the information to evaluate whether there are grounds for prosecuting you for crimes committed in Denmark or abroad, to identify victims of or witnesses to a specific crime, or to aid foreign law enforcement agencies.

D. Notification that some information will be passed on to local Danish authorities

Danish immigration authorities are permitted to give certain information to the municipality (kommune) in which you settle if you receive a residence permit.

Such information includes:

- The grounds for issuing you a residence permit
- Exemptions to restrictions placed on your residence permit (if any)

The municipality will be informed if:

- Your residence permit is revoked or not extended
- Your residence permit is found to have expired
- Your residence permit is made permanent

E. Notification that Danish authorities have registered information about you and your affairs

The information you supply or have supplied in connection with your application for a passport will be registered in the Aliens Register. The same holds true for information you give in conjunction with an application to extend your residence.

The Aliens Register is a computerised register maintained by the Immigration Service.

If you receive a residence permit, it will be registered in the Central Person Register. The Central Person Register is a computerised register maintained by the Interior and Health Ministry.

The information in the Aliens Register and the Central Person Register will be used to answer questions relating to your residence in Denmark. Public administration authorities (record keeping), the police (record keeping and verification) and the Ministry of Integration (reviewing complaints) will have access to the information about you contained in the Aliens Register and the Central Person Review.

Other authorities or organisations will receive information about you from the Aliens Register and the Central Person Register if they require the information to answer questions about your residence in Denmark.

You are obligated to provide the information necessary for deciding whether you are eligible for a Danish residence permit. Failure to provide the information can result in a fine or up to four months imprisonment, as well as placing your residence permit in jeopardy. You are entitled to right of access to the information about you in the Aliens Register and the Central Person Register. Enquiries about this can be addressed to the Danish Immigration Service, Ryesgade 53, DK-2100 Copenhagen Ø.

F. Information regarding possible verification by the authorities of the information you have supplied

The Integration Service or another Danish authority may seek to verify the accuracy of the information you gave in your application. This may happen while your application is being reviewed or after you have received your residence permit. Verification may be conducted at random and is not necessarily an indication that the Immigration Service suspects you of providing false information.

Verification may involve the following:

- Checking public registers, such as the Central Person Register
- Contacting other authorities, such as municipalities
- Contacting third parties, such as employers or places of study
- Turning up in person at your residence, place of study or workplace

You may be asked to supply additional information as part of the verification process.

G. Information about possible consequences if you apply for a residence permit while in Denmark on a visa (short term)

If you are staying in Denmark on a visa (short term) and you submit an application for a residence permit in this country, you need to be aware that it may have the following consequences:

- You can become ineligible for a visa for five-years (Aliens Act section 4 c).
- If someone in Denmark has posted a financial guarantee for your visa, it can be collected by the Immigration Service, which means the money will be forfeited to the state (Aliens Act section 4).

However, the abovementioned consequences do not apply in the following cases:

- If you are a child under 15 or a spouse applying for family reunification.
- If you apply for a residence permit in order to study.
- If you apply for a residence permit in order to participate in the cities of refuge program.
- If you apply for a residence permit on the grounds of work, and you meet the requirements to obtain a permit.
- If there are decisive humanitarian reasons for allowing you to remain eligible for a visa or the guarantee not to be forfeited.

These exceptions assume the reason for your application is genuine.
