

For Official Use Only

Date received	Received by (name)	Authority	Personal ID	Case order ID*
---------------	-----------------------	-----------	-------------	----------------

KO1/BREXIT_en_28012025

Application for a new residence card based on the withdrawal Agreement between the EU and United Kingdom

Uses

This application form can be used to apply for a new residence card if you are residing in Denmark based on the Withdrawal Agreement between the EU and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

And

- You did not receive the residence card we sent you when you were granted residence based on the Withdrawal Agreement,
- you have lost your residence card or it has been destroyed,
- there has been changes to your personal data as they appear on the residence card (e.g. name change) or
- you are below 18 years of age and have not previously been issued a residence card, but now need a residence card.

If you have lost your residence card

If you have lost your residence card you must remember to fill out a declaration of lost passport or identity document (P 650-031) at a police station. You can get the declaration by contacting the police. The declaration must be signed and stamped by the police and submitted together with this form.

Please note: If you are not residing in Denmark based on the Withdrawal Agreement between the EU and United Kingdom, but have a residence permit based on work or studies, you must use application form KO1/SIRI. If you have a residence permit in Denmark on grounds of asylum or family reunification, you must apply for a new residence card at the Danish Immigration Service (application form KO1/US).

How to apply

1. Complete and sign this form
2. Enclose the necessary documents
3. Submit the application in person at one of the branch offices of the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration (SIRI).

Biometric features required on residence cards

You must appear in person to have your biometric features (facial photo and fingerprints) recorded when submitting the application. You must bring your passport. A signature will also be recorded. Read more about residence cards and biometric features at newtodenmark.dk/residencecard.

What documents should you bring?

When you submit your application you must bring

- Declaration of lost passport or identity document or documentation regarding other reasons for applying for a new residence card, if needed

If your old residence card has not been lost, you must bring your old residence card when you submit the application.

Receiving your new residence card

The new residence card will be sent to your address as registered at the Central Person Register (CPR).

Receiving your new cross-border worker card

If you are a cross-border worker, your cross-border worker card (type Y) will be sent to your employer's address automatically within approximately 6-8 weeks. If you have changed employer, the card will be sent to your new employer.

For more information

More information about residence in Denmark is available at newtodenmark.dk.

If you have any questions regarding rules and regulations or when completing the form, you can also contact the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration (SIRI) (see contact information below).

1. The Applicant

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

Personal ID

Surname

Former surname (if applicable)

Given name(s)

Nationality

Former nationality (if applicable)

Date of birth (day, month, year)

CPR number

Address (Street and number)

Postal code and city

Telephone number

E-mail

2. Your reason for applying for a new residence card

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

What is the reason you are applying for a new residence card?

☐ I have not received the residence card, sent to me.☐ I have lost my residence card.

> Enclose declaration of lost passport or identity document signed and stamped by the police.

☐ There has been changes to my personal data as they appear on the residence card.

> Enclose documentation.

☐ I am below 18 years of age and have not previously been issued a residence card, but now need a residence card.☐ Other, please state the reason:

> Enclose documentation for the reason you are applying for a new residence card.

3. Applicants below the age of 18

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

If you are below the age of 18, your parent or custody holder must state his or her full name and CPR number.

Surname

Given name(s)

CPR number

4. Sworn declarations

A. Sworn declaration that I have given correct information

I solemnly swear that the information I have given in this application is correct. If the information is found to be false, I am subject to the following penalties:

- My residence document can be revoked.
- Fine or imprisonment of up to two years.
- I can be required by law to repay the expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false information.

B. Information about the duty to provide necessary information

It is your duty to provide the information necessary to determine whether you can obtain a residence card. If you do not provide this information, it may mean that you will not be issued a residence card.

C. Information on how we process your personal data

SIRI is obliged to inform you how we process your data and to inform you of your rights in regard to how we process your data.

Data controller

SIRI is the data controller and responsible for processing the personal data given in this application form and the data provided about you during the processing of the case. You can contact the agency through our contact form on newtodenmark.dk/SIRI-contactform.

Data protection officer

You can contact our data protection officer by using our contact form at newtodenmark.dk/SIRI-contactform.

You can read more about SIRI as data controller and about SIRI's data protection officer on newtodenmark.dk/personaldata.

Purpose and legal basis

The personal data you provide to SIRI is collected and used:

- to process your application for an residence document in Denmark
- in any later application for an extension of your right to reside, permanent residence or a new residence document in Denmark
- for verification and spot checks of the conditions for your residence document in Denmark

The legal basis for processing your personal data is:

- Executive order on the implementation of certain stipulations in the withdrawal Agreement between the United Kingdom and EU in regard to the right to residence and work in Denmark
- The Danish Aliens Act, in particular chapter 1 on the entry and residence of aliens in Denmark.
- The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), article 6.1 (c) (relating to the processing of data in order to comply with the legal obligation to which the controller is subject) and 6.1 (e) (relating to the exercise of official authority vested in SIRI by the Aliens Act).
- The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), article 9.2 (f) (relating to the necessity of processing in order to establish, exercise or defend legal claims).
- The Danish Data Protection Act section 8 (relating to the official authority only being allowed to process information about criminal offences if it is necessary for tasks of that official authority).

The information you give or have given in connection with your application will be registered in the registers of Danish immigration authorities. The same holds true for any information you later give in connection with an application for permanent residence, extension of your residence document, a new residence document in Denmark or in connection with a possible verification and spot check.

We process the following categories of data about you:

- General personal data, such as: information about your name, civil registration number (CPR-number), citizenship, occupation, educational background, marital status, financial information and whether you have committed any legally punishable offences.
- Sensitive personal data, such as health information

We can disclose your data to the following recipients

SIRI may disclose information to your reference (family member) municipal authorities, the police, the Danish Security and Intelligence Service and the Danish Defence Intelligence Service, the public prosecutor, the Immigration Appeals Board, the Refugee Appeals Board, the Ministry of Immigration and Integration, the Danish immigration Service, the Danish Return Agency, the Danish Agency for Labour Market and Recruitment (STAR), the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark, The Danish Parliament and the Agency of Family Law.

In isolated cases, SIRI also passes on your data to other public authorities, private sector organizations and foreign organizations and authorities when it is necessary to exercise our official authority.

Furthermore, data from SIRI's registers and the CPR register are shared with other relevant authorities or organisations via the Aliens Information Portal (Udlændingeinformationsportalen) if they need the data in order to process aspects of your stay in Denmark.

SIRI shares data when it is necessary in order to exercise our official authority, including when we are legally obliged to share information

Particularly for third-country nationals

If you lose your grounds for residence, we will inform any current or former employers that you are no longer entitled to work. This will happen, if we give you a refusal to an application for an residence document or for an extension of your residence document. This will also happen, if your residence document is revoked or if we find that your right to residence has expired or lapsed. The information will be given to employers who have reported wages paid to you within the last 3 months to the income register.

What is the origin of the data we process about you?

The personal data that SIRI processes about you have been provided by you in this application form. We will also process data you may submit to your case later.

In addition, we will process data obtained from:

- any previous applications submitted to SIRI by you,
- searches in databases, such as: the Civil Registration System (CPR), the Income Register (eIncome), the Building and Dwelling Register (BBR) and the Schengen Information System (SIS II)
- other authorities, such as: municipal authorities, the Danish Immigration Service, the Immigration Appeals Board and the Refugee Appeals Board,
- third-party or reference, such as family members, employers or educational institutions
- any person applying for EU residence based on your grounds for EU residence in Denmark, and this person's previous cases with SIRI.
- Any person on the basis of whom you are applying for an EU residence document and this person's previous cases with SIRI.

Storage of data

SIRI will store your personal data for as long as it is necessary in order to be able to carry out our tasks in relation to establishing or defending a legal claim to residence.

Data submitted as part of an immigration related matter can be stored for use by the immigration authorities at a later date. This means that the data can enter into the decision making process regarding future applications for extension, when revoking an EU residence document, for verification and spot checks, when deciding whether a right to reside has lapsed, in relation to applications for permanent residency and for naturalization and in cases concerning any family members.

In practice this means that SIRI will store your data for the period of your 'lifecycle' – i.e. your entire life. Basic data regarding your stay in Denmark, e.g. when and why you have been granted an EU residence document and information on other decisions made by SIRI regarding your residence in Denmark will not be erased.

Finally, it must be mentioned that data will be transferred to the Danish National Archives in accordance with the Danish Archives Act.

Your rights

Under the GDPR you have a number of rights in relation to our processing of data about you:

The right to know what kind of data we process about you

You have the right to ask what kind of data we are processing about you and be granted access to these data. If you request access to your data, your application will be processed in accordance with the GDPR's regulations governing right of access. If there are other regulations which provide you with greater access than the GDPR affords, your request for access will be processed in accordance with these regulations as well. These additional regulations may include those contained in the Public Administration Act that governs freedom of information requests.

The right to rectification (data correction) and the right to have your data erased

You have the right to request that corrections be made to personal data about you that you find inaccurate. In specific situations, you also have the right to have your data erased. As a rule, information can only be erased, if it is not necessary for processing your case as SIRI is obliged to record and register information in accordance with the Public Administration Act.

The right to restriction of processing

In some situations, you have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data. Where processing has been restricted, SIRI may thereafter, with the exception of storage, only process your data with your consent unless the purpose of the processing is to establish or defend a legal claim, to protect another person or for reasons of important public interest.

The right to object

In some situations, you have the right to object to otherwise legal processing of your personal data. This means that you can request that your data is erased, corrected or restricted.

You can read more about your rights in the Danish Data Protection Agency's guidelines about GDPR at www.datatilsynet.dk. If you would like make use of your rights under the GDPR, contact SIRI.

Complaints to the Data Protection Agency

You have the right to submit a complaint to the Data Protection Agency if you are dissatisfied with the way we process your personal data. Contact information for the Data Protection Agency is available at www.datatilsynet.dk.

D. Verification and spot-checks

Your case may be selected for a spot-check. The spot-check aims to verify the following:

- The accuracy of the information you have given.
- Whether you meet the conditions for an EU residence document.

Verification may involve the following:

- Checking public registers, such as the Civil Registration System (CPR)
- Contacting other authorities, such as municipalities

- Contacting third parties, such as employers or places of study
- Turning up in person at your residence, place of study or workplace

You may be asked to supply additional information as part of the verification and spot-check process.

5. Signature

By signing below, I confirm that I have read and accepted the terms laid out in section 4 (if the applicant is under 15 years of age the parent/custody holder must sign this application.)

Date and place

Signature

For official use only: Comments and forwarding endorsements

☐ Names are in compliance with shown proof of identity

Enclosed:

☐ Declaration about lost residence card

☐ Former residence card

☐ Other

REMEMBER TO FILL OUT NAME AND DATE OF RECEIVAL AT PAGE 1 AS WELL.