Application for a residence card

Uses

The Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration (SIRI) does not routinely issue residence cards to foreign nationals holding a temporary residence permit in the Faroe Islands

If you have been granted a temporary residence permit and wish to have a residence card as proof of your right to reside in the Faroe Islands, you must complete this form.

Who can use this form?

You can use this form, if you have been granted a residence and work permit in the Faroe Islands based on salaried work or studies.

You can also use this form, if you have been granted a residence permit as an accompanying spouse, cohabitant or child under the age of 18 to a foreign national holding a residence and work permit in the Faroe Islands based on salaried work or studies.

When can you be granted a residence card?

You can use this form to apply for a residence card if:

- You wish to have a residence card as proof of your right to reside in the Faroe Islands,
- you have lost your residence card or
- there has been changes to information on your card that needs to be updated (e.g. name changes)

If you have lost your residence card

If you have lost your residence card you must remember to complete a declaration of lost residence card. The declaration can be obtained from the police and should be submitted together with this form.

How to apply

1. Complete and sign this form.
2. Enclose the necessary documentation (see below)
3. Submit the application in person at a local police station. If you are in Denmark, you can submit the form in the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration's (SIRI) branch offices.

What documents should I include with my application?

- One passport photo affixed to Appendix 1: Personal data card.
- Declaration of lost residence card (if applicable).
- Documentation of the reason for submitting an application for a new residence card (if applicable).

Note that all submitted documentation must be in Danish or English. If this is not the case, the documentation must be translated into Danish or English by an authorized translator before submitting the documentation.

When submitting this form, you must also present your current residence card. If you have lost your residence card, you must present another form of picture ID.

Delivery of your new residence card

Your new residence card will be sent to your address in the Faroe Islands. It is therefore important that you state your address correctly.

C. Information on how we process your personal data

SIRI is obliged to inform you how we process your data and to inform you of your rights in regard to how we process your data.

Data controller

SIRI is the data controller and responsible for processing the personal data given in this application form and the data provided about you during the processing of the case. You can contact the agency by writing to the following address: The Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration (SIRI), Carl Jacobsens Vej 39, PO box 304, 2500 Valby or through our contact form on newtodenmark.dk/SIRI-contactform.

Data protection officer

You can contact our data protection officer by writing to the aforementioned address (Att. Data protection officer) or by using our contact form at newtodenmark.dk/SIRI-contactform. You can read more about SIRI as data controller and about SIRI's data protection officer on newtodenmark.dk/personaldata.

Purpose and legal basis

The personal data you provide to SIRI is collected and used:

- to process your application for a residence card for the Faroe Islands
- for verification and spot checks of the conditions for your residence and/or work in the Faroe Islands

The legal basis for processing your personal data is:

- Decree of commencement for the Faroe Islands of the Danish Aliens Act (the Aliens Act) in particular chapter 1 on the entry and residence of aliens on the Faroe Islands.
- Executive order no. 636 of 7th June 2010 on aliens admission and residence on the Faroe Islands
- The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), article 6.1 (c) (relating to the processing of data in order to comply with the legal obligation to which the controller is subject) and 6.1 (e) (relating to the exercise of official authority vested in SIRI by the Aliens Act).
- The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), article 9.2 (f) (relating to the necessity of processing in order to establish, exercise or defend legal claims).
- The Danish Data Protection Act section 8 (relating to the official authority only being allowed to process information about criminal offences if it is necessary for tasks of that official authority).

The information you give or have given in connection with your application will be registered in the registers of Danish immigration authorities. The same holds true for any information you later give in connection with an application to extend your residence permit or for a new residence and/or work permit in the Faroe Islands.

Some of your data will be registered by the authorities in the Faroe Islands. This will in some instances happen immediately when you are granted a permit. In other situations the registration will take place only when you take up residence in the Faroe Islands.

We process the following categories of data about you:

- General personal data, such as: information about your name, P-number, citizenship, occupation, education, marital status, financial information and whether you have committed any legally punishable offences
- Sensitive personal data, such as: health information

We can disclose your data to the following recipients

SIRI can pass on your data to your sponsor (e.g. your employer, place of study, host or family member), Útlendingastovan, the police, the Danish Security and Intelligence Service and the Danish Defence Intelligence Service, the public prosecutor, the Ministry of Immigration and Integration, the Danish immigration Service, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark and The Danish Parliament.

In isolated cases, SIRI also passes on your data to other public authorities, private sector organizations and foreign organizations and authorities when it is necessary to exercise our official authority.

Furthermore, data from SIRI's registers are shared with other relevant authorities or organisations via the Aliens Information Portal (Udlændingeinformationsportalen) if they need the data in order to process aspects of your stay on the Faroe Islands.

SIRI shares data when it is necessary in order to exercise our official authority, including when we are legally obliged to share information.

What is the origin of the data we process about you?

The personal data that SIRI processes about you have been provided by you in this application form. We will also process data you may submit to your case later.

In addition, we will process data obtained from:

- any of your previous applications submitted to SIRI,
- searches in databases, such as: the Schengen Information System (ADMIN)
- other authorities, such as: the Danish Immigration Service, third-parties or sponsors, such as: your au pair- or internship host, employer or educational institutions

- any person applying for a residence permit based on your grounds for residence on the Faroe Islands, and this person's previous cases with SIRI.

Storage of data

SIRI will store your personal data for as long as it is necessary in order to be able to carry out our tasks in relation to establishing or defending a legal claim to residence.

Data submitted as part of an immigration related matter can be stored for use by the immigration authorities at a later date. This means that the data can enter into the decision making process regarding future applications for extension of a residence permit, when revoking a residence permit, for verification and spot checks, when deciding whether a permit has lapsed, in relation to applications for permanent residency and for naturalization and in cases concerning any family members.

In practice this means that SIRI will store your data for the period of your 'lifecycle' – i.e. your entire life. Basic data regarding your stay in Denmark, e.g. when and why you have been granted a residence permit and information on other decisions made by SIRI regarding your residence in Denmark will not be erased.

Finally, it must be mentioned that data will be transferred to the Danish National Archives in accordance with the Danish Archives Act.

Your rights

Under the GDPR you have a number of rights in relation to our processing of data about you:

The right to know what kind of data we process about you

You have the right to ask what kind of data we are processing about you and be granted access to these data. If you request access to your data, your application will be processed in accordance with the GDPR's regulations governing right of access. If there are other regulations which provide you with greater access than the GDPR affords, your request for access will be processed in accordance with these regulations as well. These additional regulations may include those contained in the Public Administration Act that governs freedom of information requests.

The right to rectification (data correction) and the right to have your data erased

You have the right to request that corrections be made to personal data about you that you find inaccurate. In specific situations, you also have the right to have your data erased. As a rule, information can only be erased, if it is not necessary for processing your case as SIRI is obliged to record and register information in accordance with the Public Administration Act.

The right to restriction of processing

In some situations, you have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data. Where processing has been restricted, SIRI may thereafter, with the exception of the storage, only process your data with your consent unless the purpose of the processing is to establish or defend a legal claim, to protect another person or for reasons of important public interest.

The right to object

In some situations, you have the right to object to otherwise legal processing of your personal data. This means that you can request that your data is erased, corrected or restricted.

You can read more about your rights in the Danish Data Protection Agency's guidelines about GDPR at datatilsynet.dk. If you would like make use of your rights under the GDPR, contact SIRI.

Complaints to the Data Protection Agency

You have the right to submit a complaint to the Data Protection Agency if you are dissatisfied with the way we process your personal data. Contact information for the Data Protection Agency is available at datatilsynet.dk.

D. Verification and spot-checks

Your case may be selected for a spot-check. The spot-check aims to verify the following:

- The accuracy of the information you have given.
- Whether you meet the conditions for a residence and/or work permit, if such is granted to you.
- Whether you are staying and/or working in Denmark without the necessary permit.

Verification may involve the following:

- Checking public registers

5. Signature

By signing below, I confirm that the information I have given in this form is correct and that I have read and accepted the terms laid out in section 4 A (If the applicant is under 15 years old, the custody holder or guardian must sign the application).

I also understand that the information I have given or will be giving will be registered in SIRI's registers.
