

The employer's sworn declaration on continued payment of salary to a Danish bank account for AR3 and AR7

You must complete the declaration when the situation concerns topics such as:

- Applications for extensions under the Pay Limit Scheme where the application for the first residence or work permit was sent on 1 July 2017 or later.
- Applications for extensions on the Pay Limit Track under the Fast-Track Scheme where the application for the first residence or work permit was sent on 1 July 2017 or later.

The employer must confirm that salary up to and including the minimum amount will continue to be paid to a Danish bank account. Salary that exceeds the minimum amount can be paid in another way or within a different country – and can consist of other salary components.

Salary up to and including the minimum amount can consist of:

- Base salary
- Payment to labour market pension schemes (both the part paid by the employer and the employee)
- Paid holiday allowance
