Application for an extension of a temporary residence permit on the grounds of family reunification for children under the age of 18

Uses

This form should be used to apply to extend a temporary Faroese residence permit held by a family reunified child. Please complete one form per child.

The term 'family reunified child' should be understood to mean a child under 18 who has been granted a Faroese residence permit in order to live with:

- one or both parents
- a foster parent or
- an adult sibling, grandparent or other close relation

If possible, the adult with whom the child has been family reunified in the Faroe Islands (parent, foster parent, near relation), should complete the form together with the child.

In this form, the term 'applicant' should be understood to mean the child whose residence permit needs to be extended. The term 'parent' is used as a general term to refer to the adult with whom the child has been family reunified in the Faroe Islands.

Who should sign?

Children over 15 must sign the form. The form must also be signed by the parent.

The child should sign Section 7 and the parent should sign Section 5.

If the child is under 15, only the parent needs to sign the form.

Instructions

- Fill out and sign this form.
- Send the application to the Danish Immigration Service or submit the form at a Faroese police station. If you are in Denmark, the form can be submitted at the Danish Immigration Service's Citizen Service. You must book an appointment before you show up at the Citizen Service. Read more about where the Immigration Service's Citizen Service has branch offices and how to book an appointment at www.newtodenmark.dk/visitus.

What documents should I include with my application?

- proof that the parent can support the applicant financially (if applicable)
- documentation that the parent meets the housing requirement (if applicable)
- one passport photo attached to personal data card in Appendix 1

For more information

More information about the rules governing residence permits is available at newtodenmark.dk, where you can also find information about processing times. If you have questions when filling out the forms, you can also contact the Danish Immigration Service. See contact information at www.newtodenmark.dk/contact-us.

Declaration that the requirements for the child's residence permit are still being met

In order for the child's residence permit to be extended, all the requirements for issuing the initial residence permit must still be met. By signing below, you declare that this is the case.

The letter the Danish Immigration Service sent to you (the applicant) with your original residence permit/most recent extension states the grounds for granting you residence. We recommend that you refer to the letter before completing this application form in order to ensure that you are aware of all the requirements.

Providing false information in an application is subject to the following penalties:

- fine or imprisonment for up to two years
- repayment of the expenses the Danish state might have incurred as a result of the false information
- revocation of the applicant's (the child's) residence permit

Qualifying for a family reunification residence permit

There are a number of conditions to be met regarding the parent's housing and financial situation.

Normally, the parent with whom the child has been family reunified must be a permanent resident of the Faroe Islands.

In certain cases, the parent living in the Faroe Islands must also meet the following requirements:

- have accommodation of adequate size at his/her disposal
- be able to support the child financially

If the parent living in the Faroe Islands was required to meet the housing and financial support requirements in order for the applicant to be issued his/her current residence permit, the requirements will normally also need to be met in order to qualify for an extension.

If you are unable to determine whether you still meet the conditions stipulated by your residence permit, tick box C in Section 4 below.

Housing and support requirements

Housing requirement

In order to qualify for a residence permit, the parent must have accommodation of adequate size at his/her disposal. This can be documented by:

- a copy of lease contract, if the parent lives in rented accommodation or
- a copy of deed or final sale agreement, if the parent owns his/her own residence

If the child and the parent live at the same address as when the child was granted his/her current residence permit or extension, no documentation for housing is needed.

Financial support

If the applicant was granted residence on the condition that the parent can support the child financially, the parent must provide documentation that he/she can still do so. Acceptable documentation includes: TAKS account printouts, copies of pay statements, copies of employer's pay expenses for the current year and the past 12 months.

By signing Section 5 below, the parent declares he/she can still support the child financially.

Enquiry

As part of your application to extend your Faroese residence permit, the Danish Immigration Service may enquire with the Faroese immigration authorities about your housing situation and whether you can still support the applicant financially. The Danish Immigration Service will also enquire whether there are other reasons for not extending your residence permit.

4 Declarations (parent)

4.1 Declaration that the applicant still qualifies for a residence permit PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

Please tick the appropriate box below. (Tick only one.)

A.
 I solemnly declare that I still meet the conditions stipulated by my child's current residence permit.

 I declare that I no longer meet the conditions stipulated by my child's current residence permit.

Please explain how your situation has changed: _____

C.
 I am unable to determine whether I still meet the conditions stipulated by my child's residence permit.

The Danish Immigration Service may contact you to obtain further information.

4.2. Declaration of financial support (parent)

In certain cases, the parent will be required to support the child financially.

When applying to extend a residence permit for a family reunified child, the parent must declare that he/she can still provide adequate financial support. If no such requirement has been made previously, the parent does not need to tick the box below.

I solemnly declare that I can support the child financially.

4.3. Additional declarations (parent)A. Sworn declaration of correctness

I solemnly declare that the information in this application is correct and complete in accordance with Section 161 of the Danish Criminal Code, cf. Act No 215 of 24 June 1939, with amendments, as well as Section 40 of Ordinance No 182 of 22 March 2001 (Application of the Aliens Act in the Faroe Islands).

If the information is later found to be false or incomplete, I am subject to the following penalties:

- fine or imprisonment for up to two years
- I can be required to repay the expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false information
- the applicant's residence permit can be revoked in accordance with section 19 of Ordinance No 182 of 22 March 2001

B. Declaration of consent – release of information required for processing my application

I consent to allowing the Danish immigration authorities to obtain and release information about my private affairs if it is necessary in order to process this application, cf. Public Administration Act Sections 28 and 29, cf. Ordinance No 1144 of 22 December 1993 (Application of the Public Administration Act in the Faroe Islands), and altered on 2 March 1999 by Ordinance No 119. The information can be gathered from or released to other Danish and foreign public authorities, including the police.

Such information includes:

- previous criminal proceedings against me
- information about my family
- information about the documents submitted with my application, including verification that they are genuine

I also consent to giving authorities contacted by the Danish Immigration Service while processing my application permission to gather information about my private affairs in order to respond to the enquiry.

C. Notification that information can be released to Danish intelligence agencies and prosecuting authorities

The information and documentation you submit with your application can, in certain cases and based on an individual review, be released to Danish intelligence agencies and the public prosecuting authority, cf. Public Administration Act, Section 28, Paragraph 2 (3), cf. Ordinance No 1144 of 22 December 1993.

The prosecuting authority will use the information to evaluate whether there are grounds for prosecuting you for crimes committed in Denmark/the Faroe Islands or abroad.

D. Notification that some information will be released to Faroese authorities

Danish immigration authorities are permitted to release certain information to the Faroese home rule authorities or to the Faroese Police, cf. Public Administration Act, Section 28, Paragraph 3, cf. Ordinance No 1144 of 22 December 1993.

Such information includes:

- the grounds for issuing you a residence permit
- any waivers granted

The police will be informed if:

- your residence permit is revoked or not extended
- your residence permit is found to have lapsed or
- your residence permit is made permanent

E. Notification that Danish authorities will register information about you and your private affairs

The information you submit when applying for a residence permit will be entered in the Danish Immigration Service's registers. The same holds true for information submitted when applying to extend your Faroese residence permit.

The information in the Danish Immigration Service's registers will be used to answer questions about your residence in the Faroe Islands. The police will have access to the information contained in the Danish Immigration Service's registers for record keeping and verification purposes. The Ministry of Immigration and Integration will be permitted to access the Danish Immigration Service's registers in the event of a complaint.

Other authorities or organisations will receive information about you from the Danish Immigration Service's registers if the information is necessary to answer questions about your residence in the Faroe Islands.

You are obliged to provide the information necessary for deciding whether you are eligible for a Faroese residence permit, cf. Section 40 of Ordinance No 182 of 22 March 2001. Failure to provide the information can result in a fine or up to four months mitigated imprisonment, as well as jeopardising your residence permit. You are entitled to right of access to the information about you in the Danish Immigration Service's registers, cf. Danish law No 294 of 8 June 1978 (Public Registers). Enquiries about accessing information contained in the register can be addressed to:

The Danish Immigration Service
Farimagsvej 51A
4700 Næstved
Denmark

F. Verification of the information you submitted

The Danish Immigration Service may seek to verify the accuracy of the information about the applicant included in the application. This may happen while the application is being reviewed or after the applicant has received his/her residence permit.

Verification may involve contacting other authorities.

Should authorities seek to verify your information, you may be asked to provide supplementary information.

5. Signature (parent)
