Application for a Faroese residence permit based on

- prior Danish citizenship or
- Faroese/Danish descent

Uses

Use this form when applying for a Faroese residence permit based on:

- prior Danish citizenship or
- Faroese/Danish descent

More information about prior Danish citizenship and Faroese/Danish descent can be found on page 2 of this form, where you will also find examples of approved documentation.

Instructions

To apply for a Faroese residence permit:

1. Fill out and sign this form, following the instructions given.
2. Submit the application and any required documentation to a Danish embassy or consulate in your country of residence or to a police station in the Faroe Islands. If you are currently in Denmark, submit the application at the Danish Immigration Service.

What documents should I include with my application?

Please include the following documents when submitting this form:

- A copy of your passport (all pages with information, including cover)
- One passport photo. Please affix the photo to the personal data card in Appendix 1
- Proof of previous Danish citizenship or Danish or Faroese descent (see examples on page 2)

What other documents are required?

When submitting your application, please present your passport so the authorities can verify your identity.

If your spouse or minor child is also seeking a Faroese residence permit

In order for your spouse/cohabiting partner or child under 18 to qualify for a Faroese residence permit, you must meet all the normal requirements for family reunification in the Faroe Islands. Apply using the appropriate form (FO/FA1 and/or FO/FA2).

For more information

More information about the rules governing family reunification in the Faroe Islands is available at newtodenmark.dk, where you can also find information about processing times. If you have questions when filling out the forms, you can also contact the Danish Immigration Service. See contact information at www.newtodenmark.dk/contact-us.

For a faster reply

Your application will be processed faster if you complete the form correctly and include all necessary documentation.

Information about previous Danish citizenship or Faroese/Danish descent

Previous Danish citizenship

Foreign nationals who have previously held Danish citizenship are eligible for a residence permit under the terms of Section 9, Paragraph 1 (1), in Ordinance No 182 of 22 March 2001 (Application of the Aliens Act in the Faroe Islands). However, you are not eligible if you have lost your citizenship in accordance with Section 8 a or Section 8 b of the Danish Citizenship Act.

Documentation of previous Danish citizenship includes your own baptismal certificate or one of your parents' baptismal certificates.

Faroese/Danish descent

Foreign nationals of Faroese/Danish descent are normally granted a residence and work permit under the terms of Section 9, Paragraph 2 (4) in Ordinance nr. 182 of 22 March 2001 (Application of the Aliens Act in the Faroe Islands) provided they can document that both of their parents (or all four grandparents) were natural-born Danish citizens.

Your parents are not required to have retained their Danish citizenship.

You may not be issued a residence permit based on Faroese/Danish descent more than once.

Documentation of Faroese/Danish descent includes your parents' or your grandparents' baptismal certificates.

7. Declarations

A. Sworn declaration of correctness

I solemnly swear that the information in this application is correct and complete in accordance with Section 161 of the Danish Criminal Code, cf. Act No 215 of 24 June 1939, with amendments, as well as Section 40 of Ordinance No 182 of 22 March 2001 (Application of the Aliens Act in the Faroe Islands).

If the information is later found to be false or incomplete, I am subject to the following penalties:

- fine or imprisonment for up to two years
- I can be required to repay the expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false information
- my residence permit can be revoked in accordance with section 19 of Ordinance No 182 of 22 March 2001

B. Declaration of consent – release of information required for processing my application

I consent to allowing the Danish immigration authorities to obtain and release information about my private affairs if it is necessary in order to process this application, cf. Public Administration Act sections 28 and 29, cf. Ordinance No 1144 of 22 December 1993 (Application of the Public Administration Act in the Faroe Islands), and altered on 2 March 1999 by Ordinance No 119. The information can be gathered from or released to other Danish and foreign public authorities, including the police.

Such information includes:

- previous criminal proceedings against me
- information about my family
- information about the documents submitted with my application, including verification that the documents are genuine

I also consent to giving authorities contacted by the Danish Immigration Service while processing my application permission to gather information about my private affairs in order to respond to the enquiry.

C. Notification that information can be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and prosecuting authorities

The information and documentation you submit with your application can, in certain cases and based on an individual review, be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and the public prosecuting authority, cf. Public Administration Act, Section 28, Paragraph 2 (3), cf. Ordinance No 1144 of 22 December 1993.

The prosecuting authority may use the information to evaluate whether there are grounds for prosecuting you for crimes committed in Denmark/the Faroe Islands or abroad.

D. Notification that some information will be released to the Faroese authorities

Danish immigration authorities are permitted to release certain information to the Faroese Immigration Office or to the Faroese Police, cf. Public Administration Act, Section 28, Paragraph 3, cf. Ordinance No 1144 of 22 December 1993.

Such information includes:

- the grounds for issuing you a residence permit
- any waivers granted

The police will be informed if:

- your residence permit is revoked or not extended
- your residence permit is found to have lapsed or
- your residence permit is made permanent

E. Notification that Danish authorities will register information about you and your private affairs

The information you submit when applying for a residence permit will be entered in the Danish Immigration Service's registers. The same holds true for information submitted when applying to extend your Faroese residence permit.

The information in the Danish Immigration Service's registers will be used to answer questions about your residence in the Faroe Islands. The police will have access to the information contained in the Danish Immigration Service's registers for record keeping and verification purposes. The Ministry of Immigration and Integration will be permitted to access the Danish Immigration Service's registers in the event of a complaint.

Other authorities or organisations may receive information about you from the Danish Immigration Service's registers if the information is necessary to answer questions about your residence in the Faroe Islands.

You are obliged to provide the information necessary for deciding whether you are eligible for a Faroese residence permit, cf. Section 40 of Ordinance No 182 of 22 March 2001. Failure to provide the information can result in a fine or up to four months imprisonment, as well as jeopardising your residence permit. You are entitled to right of access to the information about you in the Danish Immigration Service's registers, cf. Danish law No 294 of 8 June 1978 (Public Registers). Enquiries about accessing information contained in the register can be addressed to:

The Danish Immigration Service
Farimagvej 51A
4700 Næstved
Denmark

F. Verification of the information you submit

The Danish Immigration Service may seek to verify the accuracy of the information included in your application. This may happen while your application is being reviewed or after you have received your residence permit.

Verification may involve contacting other authorities.

Should authorities seek to verify your information, you may be asked to provide supplementary information.
