Application for permanent Faroese residence permit for individuals who:

- have previously held Danish citizenship
- are the parents, aged 60 or older, of a Faroese resident
- have close family ties or another type of close relationship to a Faroese resident or

- hold a Faroese residence permit due to special circumstances, including Faroese/Danish descent

Uses

Use this form when applying for a permanent Faroese residence permit if you hold a temporary Faroese residence permit and if you belong to one of the groups listed above.

The term 'applicant' as used in this form refers to you, the person applying for a permanent residence permit.

When can you apply for a permanent residence permit?

- If you hold a Faroese residence permit on the grounds of prior Danish citizenship you can apply for a permanent residence permit after one year.
- If you hold a Faroese residence permit on the grounds of Faroese/Danish descent, you can apply for a permanent residence permit after two years.
- If you have not held a Faroese residence permit on the grounds of:
 - prior Danish citizenship or
 - Faroese/Danish descent
 you will normally need to have held a residence permit on the same grounds for three years in order to qualify for a permanent Faroese residence permit.

In order to qualify for a permanent residence permit, the following requirements must also be met:

- you may not have any public debts in excess of DKK 79,070.40 (2018 level) and
- you may not have committed certain crimes

What documents should I include with my application?

Please submit a passport photo affixed to the personal data card in Appendix 1.

Further information

Please note that the Danish Immigration Service may gather information related to the reasons for issuing your initial residence permit. For example if a condition for issuing your residence permit was that the person living in the Faroe Islands could support you financially, then that person must still be able to do so. Such information may be requested from the Faroese Immigration Office.

The Danish Immigration Service will also contact the Faroese authorities to determine whether you have any outstanding public debts.

If you have a spouse/partner or minor child seeking to extend a residence permit

Spouses/partners or children under 18 also applying for an extension of their family reunification residence permits need to submit either form FO/FA6 or FO/FA4. Each child must complete a separate form. Forms can be downloaded at www.newtodenmark.dk.

For more information

More information about the rules governing family reunification is available at newtodenmark.dk, where you can also find information about processing times. If you have questions when filling out the forms, you can also contact the Danish Immigration Service. See contact information at www.newtodenmark.dk/contact-us.

3. Sworn declarationsA. Sworn declaration of correctness

I solemnly swear that the information in this application is correct and complete in accordance with Section 161 of the Danish Criminal Code, cf. Act No 215 of 24 June 1939, with amendments, as well as Section 40 of Ordinance No 182 of 22 March 2001 (Application of the Aliens Act in the Faroe Islands).

If the information is later found to be false or incomplete, I am subject to the following penalties:

- fine or imprisonment for up to two years
- I can be required to repay the expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false information
- my residence permit can be revoked in accordance with section 19 of Ordinance No 182 of 22 March 2001

B. Declaration of consent – release of information required for processing my application

I consent to allowing the Danish immigration authorities to obtain and release information about my private affairs if it is necessary in order to process this application, cf. Public Administration Act sections 28 and 29, cf. Ordinance No 1144 of 22 December 1993 (Application of the Public Administration Act in the Faroe Islands), and altered on 2 March 1999 by Ordinance No 119. The information can be gathered from or released to other Danish and foreign public authorities, including the police.

Such information includes:

- previous criminal proceedings against me
- information about my family
- information about the documents submitted with my application, including verification that they are genuine

I also consent to giving authorities contacted by the Danish Immigration Service while processing my application permission to gather information about my private affairs in order to respond to the enquiry.

C. Notification that information can be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and prosecuting authorities

The information and documentation you submit with your application can, in certain cases and based on an individual review, be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and the public prosecuting authority, cf. Public Administration Act, Section 28, Paragraph 2 (3), cf. Ordinance No 1144 of 22 December 1993.

The prosecuting authority will use the information to evaluate whether there are grounds for prosecuting you for crimes committed in Denmark/the Faroe Islands or abroad.

D. Notification that some information will be released to Faroese authorities

Danish immigration authorities are permitted to release certain information to the Faroese Immigration Office or to the Faroese Police, cf. Public Administration Act, Section 28, Paragraph 3, cf. Ordinance No 1144 of 22 December 1993.

Such information includes:

- the grounds for issuing you a residence permit
- any waivers granted

The police will be informed if:

- your residence permit is revoked or not extended
- your residence permit is found to have lapsed or
- your residence permit is made permanent

E. Notification that Danish authorities will register information about you and your private affairs

The information you submit when applying for a residence permit will be entered in the Danish Immigration Service's registers. The same holds true for information submitted when applying to extend your Faroese residence permit.

The information in the Danish Immigration Service's registers will be used to answer questions about your residence in the Faroe Islands. The police will have access to the information contained in the register for record keeping and verification purposes. The Ministry of Immigration and Integration will be permitted to access the Danish Immigration Service's registers in the event of a complaint.

Other authorities or organisations may receive information about you from the Danish Immigration Service's registers if the information is necessary to answer questions about your residence in the Faroe Islands.

You are obliged to provide the information necessary for deciding whether you are eligible for a Faroese residence permit, cf. Section 40 of Ordinance No 182 of 22 March 2001. Failure to provide the information can result in a fine or up to four months imprisonment, as well as jeopardising your residence permit. You are entitled to right of access to the information about you in the Danish Immigration Service's registers, cf. Danish law No 294 of 8 June 1978 (Public Registers). Enquiries about accessing information contained in the register can be addressed to:

The Danish Immigration Service
Farimagvej 51A
4700 Næstved
Denmark

F. Verification of the information you submit

The Danish Immigration Service may seek to verify the accuracy of the information included in your application. This may happen while your application is being reviewed or after you have received your residence permit.

Verification may involve contacting other authorities.

Should authorities seek to verify your information, you may be asked to provide supplementary information.
