

Application form

GL/SG1_en_150620

Application for family reunification (other family members)

This application form can be used by:

- parents over the age of 60, who have a child who is a citizen of Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway or Sweden, or whose child has been granted residence in Greenland under the terms of Section 7 or
- family members or others with a close relation to a permanent resident of Greenland – includes parents over the age of 60, who have a child that is neither a Danish citizen, a citizen of Finland, Iceland, Norway or Sweden nor holds a residence permit in Greenland issued according to the terms of Section 7 and
- and if there are special arguments in favour of issuing you a residence permit

You can use this form if you would like to apply for family reunification to live with a Greenlandic resident, who is neither your spouse/registered partner/cohabiting partner nor your parent (if you are under 18).

Note: Spouses/partners should use application packet GL/FA1. Children under 18 should use packet GL/FA2.

Contents

This packet contains two forms:

- Form 1 – Application for residence in Greenland
- Form 2 – Information about the applicant's family member living in Greenland

Instructions

Both Forms 1 and 2 must be submitted when applying for family reunification.

Form 1 is to be completed by the person applying for family reunification to live with a person residing in Greenland.

Instructions:

- Complete Form 1
- Submit Form 1 and any required documentation to a Danish embassy or consulate or to the police in Greenland. If you reside in Denmark, the application can be submitted at a local police station or the Danish Immigration Service.

Form 2 is to be completed by the person who already has the right to live in Greenland.

Instructions

- Complete Form 2.
- Submit Form 2 and any required documentation to a Danish embassy or consulate or to the police in Greenland. If both of you reside in Greenland, you are requested to submit Forms 1 and 2 at the same time.

The specific instructions and the required documents are listed on the first page of each form. There is a checklist at the back of the forms that can be used to keep track of whether they have been filled out correctly and whether all the required information has been included.

Can I submit an application in Greenland?

If the applicant is legally in Greenland, the application can normally be submitted there. Such is the case if the applicant:

- has a valid visa
- is exempt from visa requirements or
- currently holds a residence permit in Greenland

For more information

More information about the rules governing family reunification is available at newtodenmark.dk, where you can also find information about processing times. If you have questions when filling out the forms, you can also contact the Danish Immigration Service. See contact information at www.newtodenmark.dk/contact-us.

For a faster reply

Your application will be processed faster if:

- Forms 1 and 2 are completed correctly and submitted with the required documentation
- the application appears to meet the general requirements for family reunification

For official use only

FORM 1 (GL/SG1a)

Application for family reunification in Greenland (other family members)

Instructions

When applying for family reunification, the applicant and the person with the right to live in Greenland each need to fill out a separate form.

The instructions below explain how the person who does not already have the right to live in Greenland (the applicant) applies for a family reunification residence permit.

1. Fill out and sign Form 1. Follow the instructions in the form.
2. Submit Form 1 together with any required documentation to a Danish embassy or consulate in the country where you live. If you are in Greenland, you can submit the form at a police station. A list of police stations is available at www.politi.dk.

What documents should I include with my application?

The following documents should be submitted with Form 1:

- if you are a parent over the age of 60, you should include a copy of your birth certificate or some other documentation of your age and relation to the person living in Greenland
- a copy of your passport (all pages with information, including cover)
- Three passport photos. Please affix one photo to the personal data card in Appendix 1

What other documents are required?

When submitting your application, you will need to bring your passport so the authorities can verify your identity.

For a faster reply

Your application will be processed faster if:

- you and your family member fill out Forms 1 and 2 correctly and include the required documentation and
- the application appears to meet all the conditions for family reunification of spouses.

Missing information?

If you do not fill out the forms correctly or fail to submit all required documents, it will take longer to process your application.

For more information

More information about family reunification is available at www.newtodenmark.dk. If you have any questions about the regulations or how to fill out the forms, you can also contact the Danish Immigration Service in writing, by phone or in person. (See contact information below.)

11. Declarations

A. Sworn declaration of correctness

I solemnly swear that the information in this application is correct and complete.

If the information is later found to be false or incomplete, I am subject to the following penalties in accordance with Section 161 of the Danish Criminal Code, cf. Section 40 of Ordinance No 150 of 23 February 2001 (Application of the Aliens Act in Greenland):

- fine or imprisonment for up to two years
- I can be required to repay the expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false information
- my residence permit can be revoked in accordance with Section 19 of Ordinance No 150 of 23 February 2001

B. Declaration of consent – release of information required for processing my application

I consent to allowing the Danish immigration authorities obtain and release information about my private affairs if it is necessary in order to process this application, cf. Public Administration Act Sections 28 and 29, cf. Ordinance No 1188 of 27 December 1994 (Application of the Public Administration Act in Greenland). The information can be gathered from or released to other Danish and foreign public authorities, including the police.

Such information includes:

- previous criminal proceedings against me
- information about my family
- verification that the documents submitted with my application are genuine

I also consent to giving authorities contacted by the Danish Immigration Service while processing my application permission to gather information about my private affairs in order to respond to the enquiry.

C. Notification that information can be released to Danish intelligence agencies and prosecuting authorities

The information and documentation you submit with your application can, in certain cases and based on an individual review, be released to Danish intelligence agencies and the public prosecuting authority, cf. Public Administration Act, Section 28, Paragraph 2 (4), cf. Ordinance No 1188 of 27 December 1994.

The prosecuting authority will use the information to evaluate whether there are grounds for prosecuting you for crimes committed in Denmark/Greenland or abroad.

D. Notification that some information will be released to Greenlandic authorities

Danish immigration authorities are permitted to release certain information to the Greenlandic Self-Rule authorities or to Greenlandic Police, cf. Public Administration Act, Section 28, Paragraph 3, cf. Ordinance No 1188 of 27 December 1994.

Such information includes:

- the grounds for issuing you a residence permit
- any waivers granted

The police will be informed if:

- your residence permit is revoked or not extended
- your residence permit is found to have expired or
- your residence permit is made permanent

E. Notification that Danish authorities will register information about you and your personal affairs

The information you submit when applying for a residence permit will be entered in the Danish Immigration Service's registers. The same holds true for information submitted when applying to extend your residence permit in Greenland.

The information in the Danish Immigration Service's registers will be used to answer questions about your residence in Greenland. The police will have access to the information contained in the Danish Immigration Service's registers for record keeping and verification purposes. The Ministry of Immigration and Integration will be permitted to access the Danish Immigration Service's registers in the event of a complaint.

Other authorities or organisations will receive information about you from the Danish Immigration Service's registers if the information is necessary to answer questions about your residence in Greenland.

You are obliged to provide the information necessary for deciding whether you are eligible for a residence permit in Greenland, cf. Section 40 of Ordinance No 182 of 22 March 2001. Failure to provide the information can result in a fine or up to four months imprisonment, as well as jeopardising your residence permit. You are entitled to right of access to the information about you in the Danish Immigration Service's registers, cf. Danish law No 294 of 8 June 1978 (Public Registers). Enquiries about accessing information contained in the register can be addressed to:

The Danish Immigration Service
Farimagvej 51A
4700 Næstved
Denmark

F. Verification of the information you submit

The Danish Immigration Service may seek to verify the accuracy of the information included in your application. This may happen while your application is being reviewed or after you have received your residence permit.

Verification may involve contacting other authorities.

Should authorities seek to verify your information, you may be asked to provide supplementary information.

FORM 2 (GL/SG1b)

Information form to be used by the family member in Greenland the applicant is seeking to live with

GL/SG1b_en_150620

Instructions

When applying for family reunification, the applicant and the person with the right to live in Greenland each need to fill out a separate form.

The instructions below explain what the person who already has the right to live in Greenland (applicant's family member) should do.

1. Fill out and sign Form 2. Follow the instructions in the form.
2. Send Form 2 together with any required documentation to the Danish Immigration Service. If your family member (the applicant) is already in Greenland, both Form 1 and Form 2 should be submitted at a police station. A list of police stations is available at www.politi.dk.

What documents should I include with my application?

Residence permits for parents over 60, other family members and individuals with a close relation to a Greenlandic resident are normally only granted if you agree to support the individual financially and you have a reasonably sized residence.

In order to prove you meet the financial support and housing requirements, please submit the following:

1. Attachment 1: Declaration of financial support for the applicant
2. documentation that you have sufficient financial resources, such as: TAKS printouts, copies of pay statements or a copy of your employer's pay expenditures from the current and past year
3. documentation of your housing situation, such as a rental contract, deed or final sale agreement
4. copy of your birth certificate (required only if the applicant is a parent over the age of 60)
5. other documents as stated in the application form

Missing information?

If you do not fill out the forms correctly or fail to submit all required documents, it will take longer to process your application.

Enquiry

When the Danish Immigration Service receives your application packet, we will request a statement from the Greenlandic immigration authorities about your housing situation and whether you can support the applicant financially.

For more information

More information about family reunification is available at www.newtodenmark.dk. If you have any questions about the regulations or how to fill out the forms, you can also contact the Danish Immigration Service in writing, by phone or in person. (See contact information below.)

For a faster reply

Your application will be processed faster if:

- you and your family member fill out Form 1 and 2 correctly and include the required documentation and
- the application appears to meet all the conditions for family reunification.
