Application for a residence permit in Greenland based on

- prior Danish citizenship or
- Greenlandic/Danish descent

Uses

Use this form when applying for a residence permit in Greenland based on:

- prior Danish citizenship or
- Greenlandic/Danish descent

More information about prior Danish citizenship and Greenlandic/Danish descent can be found on page 2 of this form, where you will also find examples of approved documentation.

Instructions

To apply for a residence permit in Greenland:

1. Fill out and sign this form, following the instructions given.
2. Submit the application and the required documentation to a Danish embassy or consulate in your country of residence or to a police station in Greenland. If you are currently in Denmark, submit the application at a police station or at the Danish Immigration Service

What documents should I include with my application?

Please include the following documents with this form:

- a copy of your passport (all pages with information, including cover)
- three passport photos. Please affix one photo to the personal data card in Appendix 1
- proof of previous Danish citizenship, or Danish or Greenlandic descent (see examples on page 2)

What documentation is required when submitting an application?

When submitting your application, you will need to present your passport as proof of identification.

If your spouse or minor child is also seeking a residence permit in Greenland

In order for your spouse/cohabiting partner or minor child to qualify for a residence permit in Greenland, you must meet all the normal requirements for family reunification in Greenland. Apply using the appropriate forms (GL/FA1 or GL/FA2).

For more information

More information about the rules governing family reunification is available at newtodenmark.dk, where you can also find information about processing times. If you have questions when filling out the forms, you can also contact the Danish Immigration Service. See contact information at www.newtodenmark.dk/contact-us.

For a faster reply

Your application will be processed faster if you complete the form correctly and include all necessary documentation.

About previous Danish citizenship or Danish descent

Previous Danish citizenship

Foreign nationals who have previously held Danish citizenship are eligible for a residence permit under the terms of Section 9, Paragraph 1 (1), in Ordinance No 150 of 23 February 2001 (Application of the Aliens Act in Greenland). However, you are not eligible if you have lost your citizenship in accordance with Section 8 a or Section 8 b of the Danish Citizenship Act.

Documentation of previous Danish citizenship includes your own baptismal certificate or your parents' baptismal certificates.

Greenlandic/Danish descent

Foreign nationals of Greenlandic/Danish descent can normally be granted a residence and work permit according to the terms of Section 9, Paragraph 2 (4) in Ordinance No 150 of 23 February 2001 (Application of the Aliens Act in Greenland) provided they can document that both of their parents (or all four grandparents) were natural-born Danish citizens. Your parents are not required to have retained their Danish citizenship.

You may not be issued a residence permit based on Greenlandic/Danish descent more than once.

Documentation of Greenlandic/Danish descent includes your parents' or your grandparents' baptismal certificates.

7. Declarations

A. Sworn declaration of correctness

I solemnly swear that the information in this application is correct and complete.

If the information is later found to be false or incomplete, I am subject to the following penalties in accordance with Section 161 of the Danish Criminal Code, cf. Section 40 of Ordinance No 150 of 23 February 2001 (Application of the Aliens Act in Greenland):

- fine or imprisonment for up to two years
- I can be required to repay the expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false information
- my residence permit can be revoked in accordance with Section 19 of Ordinance No 150 of 23 February 2001

B. Declaration of consent – release of information required for processing my application

I consent to allowing the Danish immigration authorities obtain and release information about my private affairs if it is necessary in order to process this application, cf. Public Administration Act Sections 28 and 29, cf. Ordinance no. 1188 of 27 December 1994 (Application of the Public Administration Act in Greenland). The information can be gathered from or released to other Danish and foreign public authorities, including the police.

Such information includes:

- previous criminal proceedings against me
- information about my family
- verification that the documents submitted with my application are genuine

I also consent to giving authorities contacted by the Danish Immigration Service while processing my application permission to gather information about my private affairs in order to respond to the enquiry.

C. Notification that information can be released to Danish intelligence agencies and prosecuting authorities

The information and documentation you submit with your application can, in certain cases and based on an individual review, be released to Danish intelligence agencies and the public prosecuting authority, cf. Public Administration Act, Section 28, Paragraph 2 (4), cf. Ordinance no. 1188 of 27 December 1994.

The prosecuting authority will use the information to evaluate whether there are grounds for prosecuting you for crimes committed in Denmark/Greenland or abroad.

D. Notification that some information will be released to Greenlandic authorities

Danish immigration authorities are permitted to release certain information to the Self Rule authorities or to Greenlandic Police, cf. Public Administration Act, Section 28, Paragraph 3, cf. Ordinance no. 1188 of 27 December 1994.

Such information includes:

- the grounds for issuing you a residence permit
- any waivers granted

The police will be informed if:

- your residence permit is revoked or not extended
- your residence permit is found to have expired or
- your residence permit is made permanent

E. Notification that Danish authorities will register information about you and your personal affairs

The information you submit when applying for a residence permit will be entered in the Danish Immigration Service's registers. The same holds true for information submitted when applying to extend your residence permit in Greenland.

The information in the Danish Immigration Service's registers will be used to answer questions about your residence in Greenland. The police will have access to the information contained in the Danish Immigration Service's registers for record keeping and verification purposes. The Ministry of Immigration and Integration will be permitted to access the Danish Immigration Service's registers in the event of a complaint.

Other authorities or organisations will receive information about you from the Danish Immigration Service's registers if the information is necessary to answer questions about your residence in Greenland.

You are obliged to provide the information necessary for deciding whether you are eligible for a residence permit in Greenland, cf. Section 40 of Ordinance No 182 of 22 March 2001. Failure to provide the information can result in a fine or up to four months imprisonment, as well as jeopardising your residence permit. You are entitled to right of access to the information about you in the Danish Immigration Service's registers, cf. Danish law No 294 of 8 June 1978 (Public Registers). Enquiries about accessing information contained in the register can be addressed to:

The Danish Immigration Service
Farimagvej 51A
4700 Næstved
Denmark

F. Verification of the information you submit

The Danish Immigration Service may seek to verify the accuracy of the information included in your application. This may happen while your application is being reviewed or after you have received your residence permit.

Verification may involve contacting other authorities.

Should authorities seek to verify your information, you may be asked to provide supplementary information.
