Application for laissez-passer as a foreign national in Denmark

Uses

You can use this form to apply for:

- Laissez-passer

You can get a laissez-passer if you have a residence permit in Denmark and wish to travel out of the country for a short period, but do not hold any other valid travel documentation.

Please note that the Immigration Service only issues laissez-passer to a very limited extent, and that your application has to show cause.

Instructions

To apply for a laissez-passer you must:

1. Complete this form.
2. Submit the application to the Danish Immigration Service. You can send it to us through our contact form at www.newtodenmark.dk/contact-us
3. A laissez-passer has to be collected in person at the Immigration Service's Citizen Service. You must book an appointment before you can collect it. We recommend that you do not book an appointment before we have informed you whether you can get a laissez-passer.

What documents should you bring?

- A photo.
- Proof of identity.
- If you are unable to obtain a passport from the country of your citizenship you need to document this (e.g. letter from the embassy). This is not relevant if you are recognized as a refugee in Denmark or stateless.

Valid forms of personal identification

If you have previously been issued a passport you must bring the following as proof of your identity:

- Your most recent passport.
- If your CPR-number does not appear in your most recent passport, you must bring documentation for your CPR-registration (yellow card).
- If you have a residence card, you must bring this.

If you do not hold a passport as identity proof you must bring:

- Original birth certificate or certificate of naming.
- Photo identification.
- If you do not have photo identification with your CPR-number, you must present documentation for your CPR-registration (yellow card).
- If you have a residence card, you must bring this.

The Danish Immigration Service can request further identification, require you to answer questions to prove your identity, or ask you to bring someone else with you to attest to your identification in writing.

Photo requirements

- The photo should bear a close resemblance to your current appearance.
- You should be facing the camera directly and the photo must be suitable for scanning.
- The background must be uniform (light) colored without motives.
- Your eyes must be open and not covered by hair, glasses or the like. Your mouth may not be open.
- Headwear is permitted only if you for religious reasons request this. The forehead, chin and cheeks must be visible.
- The photo must measure 35mm x 45mm. Your head should measure 30mm x 36mm from the tip of the chin to the top of the hair.

If you doubt whether your photo meets the requirements, you can find more information at politi.dk. Here you can also find examples of photos that meet the requirements.

What does a laissez-passer cost?

The price for a laissez-passer depends on your age. A laissez-passer costs DKK 320 (2024 level), if you are 18 years or older. If you are younger than 18 years it costs DKK 160 (2024 level).

You must pay the fee when you show up at the Citizen Service to pick up your laissez-passer.

2. Reason for applying for laissez-passerYou have to reason your application for laissez-passer

The Immigration Service only issues laissez-passer to a very limited extent. We only issue laissez-passer in situations where a foreign national with a residence permit in Denmark wishes to travel out of the country for a short period but does not hold any other valid travel documentation. An example of this is when a foreign national wishes to travel abroad or to their home country in order to have a passport issued.

A laissez-passer is only issued for a short period

We usually do not issue a laissez-passer that is valid for more than 5 days, unless there are extraordinary reasons for having an extended period of validity.

Why are you applying for a laissez-passer?

Where will you travel? (city and country)

How long do you expect to be away?

3. Applicants under 18 years

If the applicant is under 18 years and the parents have joint custody of the child, both parents must give their consent by filling out and signing the declaration below. If one of the parents has the sole custody of the child, only this parent needs to give his/her consent by filling out and signing the declaration below.

4. Declarations

A. Sworn declaration of correctness

I hereby solemnly swear that the information I have given in this form is correct. If the information is found to be false, I am subject to fine or imprisonment of up to two years (Criminal Code section 161, cf. Aliens Act section 40).

B. Declaration of consent to allow authorities to gather necessary personal information

I consent to letting the Immigration Service obtain information about my pure private affairs from other Danish authorities, including the police authorities, for the purpose of enabling them to process my application (Public Administration Act section 29).

Such information includes:

- Criminal conditions
- Health conditions
- Intern family conditions
- Social conditions

C. Information about data protection

Data controller

The Immigration Service is responsible for processing the personal data you provide in this application form and for the data about you we receive in connection with processing the case. Our contact information is: Danish Immigration Service, Farimagvej 51A, 4700 Næstved, CVR-nr.: 77940413, telephone: +45 35 36 66 00, www.newtodenmark.dk

Data protection officer

If you have questions about how we process your personal data, you can contact our data protection officer who has the following contact information: Danish Immigration Service, Farimagssvej 51A, 4700 Næstved, Att: Databeskyttelsesrådgiver/Data protection officer

You can also write to our data protection officer via Digital Post (e-Boks) or through our contact form at www.newtodenmark.dk/contact-us

Purpose and legal basis

Your data are collected in order to process your application and your continual residence in Denmark and to control the requirements for this.

The legal basis for processing your personal data is:

- provisions of the Aliens Act (udlændingeloven), in particular: section 1 (relating to entry into Denmark and residence)
- the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 6.1(c) (relating to the processing of data in order to comply with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject) and 6.1 (e) (relating to the exercise of official authority vested in the Immigration Service by the Aliens Act)
- GDPR 9.2 (f) (relating to the necessity of processing in order to establish, exercise or defend legal claims)
- The Data Protection Act section 8 (relating to the administration only being allowed to process information about criminal offences if it is necessary for the official authorities' tasks).

You are obligated to provide the information necessary for deciding whether you are eligible for a passport (Aliens Act section 40). Failure to provide the information can result in a fine or up to one year of imprisonment (Aliens Act section 60).

The information you supply or have supplied in connection with your application for a passport will be registered in the Danish immigration authorities' registers. The information you have supplied in connection with your application for a passport is also registered in the Central Passport Registry, which contains information about holders of passports issued by the Danish Authorities. The information, which is necessary to administer the production, control and stock availability of passports, is also registered in the Police registry of Production of Passports and Driving Licences. The National Commissioner of Police has responsibility for the data contained in both registers. You are entitled to access information about yourself in the Central Passport Registry. Enquiries about this can be addressed to the Danish Police.

Types of personal data

We process the following types of data about you:

- General personal data, such as: information about your identity; citizenship and nationality; travel routes; information about your family; memberships of associations; financial information; information about your refugee status; and whether you have committed any legally punishable offences
- Sensitive personal data, such as: political opinions or religious beliefs; health information and biometric data collected for the purpose of establishing your identity.

Recipients and categories of recipients

The Immigration Service can, in certain situations, share your data with other authorities. We regularly share data with: the police, municipal authorities, the Danish Security and Intelligence Service and the Danish Defence Intelligence Service (in accordance with section 45 a of the Aliens Act), the public prosecutor (in accordance with section 45 c of the Aliens Act), the Immigration Appeals Board, the Refugee Appeals Board, the Ministry of Immigration and Integration, the Danish Return Agency, the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration, the Danish Parliament, and the Foreign Ministry, in particular the embassies and consulates.

Data are shared when it is necessary for the Immigration Service to exercise our official authority, including when we are legally obliged to share data.

In certain situations, the Immigration Service may provide data to a third-party data processor. In addition, other authorities and private organisations can have access to this information (Aliens Act section 44a). In isolated cases, the Immigration Service will share data with other public authorities, private-sector organisations and foreign organisations and authorities.

Origin of information

The Immigration Service processes the personal data you have provided in this application form and data you may provide at a later point in the case process.

In addition, we will process data obtained from:

- any of your possible previous cases with the Immigration Service,
- searches in databases, such as: the Civil Registration System, the income register (eIndkomst), the Central Register of Buildings and Dwellings (BBR), the Central Crime Register (KR), the Central Passport Register and the Schengen Information System (SIS II),
- other authorities, such as: the police, municipal authorities, the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration, the Immigration Appeals Board, the Refugee Appeals Board, the Danish Security and Intelligence Service, The Ministry of Immigration and Integration, the Danish Return Agency, and the Foreign Ministry, in particular the embassies and consulates,

- third-parties, such as: employers and educational institutions, and
- the person who might be sponsoring your application, as well as any previous cases the person may have had at the Immigration Service.

Storage of data

The Immigration Service will store your data for as long as it is necessary for us to establish or defend a legal claim to residence.

Data submitted as part of an immigration-related matter can be stored for use by the Immigration Service at a later date. The data stored by the Immigration Service can be used in applications to extend a residence permit, when revoking a residence permit, when lapsing a residence permit, applications for permanent residency, applications for naturalisation, when revoking citizenship and in your children’s cases, or in the event they may be involved in an application for family reunification.

If data can be deleted at an earlier point, deletion will be considered. Similarly, access to data can be restricted.

Finally, it should be mentioned that data will also have to be transferred to the National Archives within 30 years, in accordance with section 13 of the Archive Act (arkivloven).

Consent

The Immigration Service does not request consents in order to process personal data, as is otherwise required by the GDPR, since processing authority is granted by 6.1 (e) and 9.2 (f) of the GDPR (see section 3).

You may be asked for legal consent. Such a consent is not the basis for the specific procession of personal data but is instead a warranty provision in accordance with e.g. the Public Administration Act (forvaltningsloven) or the Aliens Act.

Rights

Under the GDPR, you have certain rights:

- You have the right to access which data about you the Immigration Service is processing.
- You have the right to request that corrections are made to personal data about you that you feel are inaccurate.
- In special situations you have the right to have data about you deleted or to restrict the processing of your personal data, if the data is no longer necessary for the processing of your case.
- You have the right to object to otherwise legal processing of your personal data.

You can read more about your rights in the Danish Data Protection Agency’s guidance about the GDPR at www.datatilsynet.dk. If you would like make use of your rights under the GDPR, contact the Immigration Service.

Complaints to the Data Protection Agency

You have the right to submit a complaint to the Data Protection Agency if you are dissatisfied with the way we process your personal data. Information about how to do so is available at www.datatilsynet.dk
