Application for a residence permit in the Faroe Islands (family members of a foreign national who works or is to work in the Faroe Islands)

Uses
This form is to be used when applying for a residence and work permit in the Faroe Islands if you are a:

- spouse
- cohabitant

of a foreign national, who holds/has applied for a residence and work permit in the Faroe Islands.

This form can also be used to apply for a residence permit in the Faroe Islands for a child under the age of 18 of a foreign national who holds/has applied for a residence and work permit in the Faroe Islands. Or if the applicant is under 18 and the child of the applicant's spouse/cohabitant.

In this form the term 'applicant' is used to refer to you, the person applying for a residence and work permit to live with a spouse/cohabitant who is/will be working in the Faroe Islands. The term 'sponsor' is used to refer to the spouse/cohabitant of the applicant.

Note: This form requires the applicant and sponsor to provide information and make statements supporting the application. You will only be asked to provide information and statements necessary for processing the application according to Faroese immigration law.

Instructions (applicant)
1. Complete this form and sign Section 8 (following the instructions given)
2. Attach required documents
3. Submit the application at a Danish embassy or consulate in your country of residence.

Applications for residence permits in the Faroe Islands must normally be submitted in the applicant's home country. In certain special situations, the application can be submitted to the police in the Faroe Islands or Denmark, or the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration.

Note: If the sponsor's children are applying for a residence permit but the sponsor's spouse/cohabitant (the child's other parent) is not, it is only necessary to complete Sections 4, 5, 8 and 9.

What documents should I include with my application?
- copy of your passport (all pages including cover)
  Note: Your passport expiry date must be at least three months after your planned departure from the Faroe Islands
- Two passport photos. Please affix one photo to the personal data card in Appendix 1
- marriage certificate or proof of cohabitation

If there are children under 18 also applying for a residence permit in the Faroe Islands, please include the following:
- a copy of the child's passport (all pages including cover)
  Note: The passport's expiry date must be at least three months after your planned departure from the Faroe Islands
- One passport photo of the child
- the child's birth certificate (name of the parents must be stated on the certificate) together with an authorised translation into Danish or English, if necessary
- statement by the parent not seeking a residence permit allowing the child to live in the Faroe Islands (if applicable)

Fees
If you submit your application at a Danish embassy or consulate, you will normally be charged a fee. The fee varies from country to country, and individual embassies/consulates can also have additional requirements, such as additional passport photos. We recommend that applicants check the website of the consulate or embassy in their area to find out if there are additional requirements.

For a faster reply
Your application will be processed faster if you complete the form correctly and include all necessary documentation.

7. Declarations

A. Sworn declaration of correctness
I solemnly swear that the information in this application is correct and complete in accordance with Section 161 of the Danish Criminal Code, cf. Act No 215 of 24 June 1939, with amendments, as well as Section 40 of Ordinance No 182 of 22 March 2001 (Application of the Aliens Act in the Faroe Islands).

If the information is later found to be false or incomplete, I am subject to the following penalties:
• fine or imprisonment for up to two years
• I can be required to repay the expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false information
• my residence permit can be revoked in accordance with section 19 of Ordinance No 182 of 22 March 2001

B. Declaration of consent – release of information required for processing my application
I consent to allowing the Danish immigration authorities to obtain and release information about my private affairs if it is necessary in order to process this application, cf. Public Administration Act Sections 28 and 29, cf. Ordinance No 1144 of 22 December 1993 (Application of the Public Administration Act in the Faroe Islands), and altered on 2 March 1999 by Ordinance No 119. The information can be gathered from or released to other Danish and foreign public authorities, including the police.

Such information includes:
• previous criminal proceedings against me
• information about my family
• information about the documents submitted with my application, including verification that the documents are genuine

I also consent to giving authorities contacted by the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration while processing my application permission to gather information about my private affairs in order to respond to the enquiry.

C. Notification that information can be released to Danish intelligence agencies and prosecuting authorities
The information and documentation you submit with your application can, in certain cases and based on an individual review, be released to Danish intelligence agencies and the public prosecuting authority, cf. Public Administration Act, Section 28, cf. Ordinance No 1144 of 22 December 1993.

The prosecuting authority may use the information to evaluate whether there are grounds for prosecuting you for crimes committed in Denmark/the Faroe Islands or abroad.

D. Notification that some information will be released to Faroese authorities
Danish immigration authorities are permitted to release certain information to the Faroese Government or to the Faroese Police, cf. Public Administration Act, Section 28, cf. Ordinance No 1144 of 22 December 1993.

Such information includes:
• the grounds for issuing you a residence permit
• any waivers granted

The police will be informed if:
• your residence permit is revoked or not extended
• your residence permit is found to have lapsed or
• your residence permit is made permanent

E. Notification that Danish authorities will register information about you and your private affairs
The information you submit when applying for a residence permit will be entered in the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration's registers. The same holds true for information submitted when applying to extend your residence permit in the Faroe Islands.

The information in the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration's registers will be used to answer questions about your residence in the Faroe Islands. The police will have access to the information contained in the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration's registers for record keeping and verification purposes. The Ministry of Immigration, Integration and Housing will be permitted to access the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration's registersin the event of a complaint.

Other authorities or organisations will receive information about you from the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration's registers if the information is necessary to answer questions about your residence in the Faroe Islands.

You are obliged to provide the information necessary for deciding whether you are eligible for a residence permit in the Faroe Islands, cf. Section 40 of Ordinance No 182 of 22 March 2001. Failure to provide the information can result in a fine or up to four months imprisonment, as well as jeopardising your residence permit. You are entitled to right of access to the information about you in the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration's registers, cf. Danish law No 294 of 8 June 1978 (Public Registers). Enquiries about accessing information contained in the register can be addressed to:

The Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration
Njalsgade 72C
2300 Copenhagen S
Denmark

F. Verification of the information you submit
The Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration may seek to verify the accuracy of the information included in your application. This may happen while your application is being reviewed or after you have received your residence permit.

Verification may involve contacting other authorities.

Should authorities seek to verify your information, you may be asked to provide supplementary information.

8. Signature (applicant)

By signing below, I confirm that I have read, understood and accepted the terms laid out in section 7 A and 7 B, and that I have read and understood the terms laid out in section 7 C - F.
